ORDER

Qazi Faez Isa, J Yet another application seeking adjournment has been submitted, this time on the ground that the petitioners want to engage another ASC. This is a petition which is pending before this Court since the year 2014 and today is the 7th time it has been listed for hearing, but on one pretext or another adjournments have been sought. The conduct of the petitioners clearly demonstrate that they are not interested in pursuing this petition. Moreover, the power of the counsel has not been discharged by this Court and the reason sought is not sufficient for adjournment, particularly in the backdrop of the repeated adjournments that have been sought. Under these circumstances, the application for adjournment is dismissed. Consequently the petition is also dismissed for non-prosecution.
