We have come across a good number of cases which are matured for arguments after receiving requisite comments, however, the alarming situation is when despite the fact that the comments are filed in time and the case is fixed before the court, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner make a request to file a rejoinder. This practice seems to be the main cause of delay in disposal of the cases and as a result thereof a huge backlog of the cases has mounted in the Principal Seat. In order to avoid this delay, it is hereby decided that whenever the comments are submitted by the respondents, petitioner or his learned counsel would file a rejoinder, if so required, without any permission from the court. In future no request of the learned counsel for the petitioner(s) for filing rejoinder would be entertained when the comments have already been filed on record. The Additional Registrar (Judicial) of this court is directed to circulate copy of this order sheet amongst the High Court Bar Association and District Bar Associations of the Province for information. This Order sheet shall also be displayed on the official website of Peshawar High Court. Relist after two weeks.
